

Blood Pressure Control

1. Blood Pressure Control: Consider ambulatory BP monitor if BP > 140/90 to exclude white coat syndrome; treat hypertension to target of <140/90 if no proteinuria (A1), or <130/80 if proteinuria (A2-3 = ACE inhibitor or angiotensin blocker preferred). Avoid dietary salt intake. Monitor BP, ideally home BP.