

Papilloedema pathway WAHT-TP-020

Look for these conditions copresenting

A number of other conditions may present with RICP.

- Primary /Secondary intracranial mass lesions Glioma/Lymphoma/Metastases lung breast melanoma
- Cortical venous sinus thrombosis presenting as a mass lesion and RICP
- IIH – Idiopathic intracranial hypertension
- Secondary hydrocephalus
- SAH/Elevated CSF protein/Malignant infiltration/CNS or CSF sepsis
- CSF infiltration
- Malignant hypertension/CO2 retention/Haematological malignancies

Vascular CRVO, Malignant hypertension, NAION

Inflammatory (Ocular) AION, Scleritis, Uveitis, Optic neuritis
(Orbital) Wegeners, Sarcoidosis, Chug Strauss, IgG4 disease, TED

Infective- e.g. Toxoplasma

Toxic optic neuropathy (drug associated)

Hypotony

Diabetic papillopathy